PROACTIVE

Kathy believes that relationship building plays a vital role in serving her clients. When there is open conversation, it is easier to identify and address the client's true needs. Continuing education is also very important to Kathy, as it allows her to effectively inform her clients on tax matters affecting their businesses or individual tax returns.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Outside of the office, Kathy enjoys spending time with her family, especially her husband and three sons. She likes spending time outdoors, traveling and taking long-distance road trips. She also enjoys crafting and event planning.
