EDUCATION

- B.S., Accountancy, Walsh College of Accountancy and Business Administration

Tony Van Howe serves as the firm's Controller and a member of the firm's Operations Management Group. Tony works with leadership and is responsible for the firm's financial activities and reporting processes. In his role, Tony is tasked with maintaining precise financial records, guaranteeing adherence to tax laws and regulations, overseeing internal control procedures, managing cash flow, mitigating risks, developing annual forecasts and budgets, conducting financial analysis and leveraging his expertise to inform strategic decision-making within the firm. Tony also serves ORBA as a member of our Community Outreach Committee.

PROACTIVE

Tony plays a pivotal role in the firm's strategic planning endeavors. His strong drive and adaptability, coupled with his wealth of experience, enable him to swiftly analyze challenges, devise effective solutions and deliver tangible outcomes for the firm. Additionally, Tony excels as a leader and team builder, fostering collaboration and driving success within ORBA's management team.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Outside of the office, Tony has a variety of interests and passions. He considers himself a car aficionado, especially of classic cars of the 1950's, 1960's and 1970's. He has a special affinity for convertibles and muscle cars. During summer weeknights and weekends, you can find Tony at area car shows. He is also an amateur photographer who loves taking photos of classic cars, birds and landscapes. In addition to his love of cars and photography, Tony enjoys classic rock music of the 1960's through the 1990's and some jazz, follows most major sports and especially loves spending time with his wife and two daughters.
