O 801.472.7444

Lora Broberg is a Manager in the Salt Lake City office. Her role encompasses comprehensive oversight of financial reporting to ensure the accurate and timely delivery of financial statements. Her responsibilities extend to a broad spectrum of accounting operations, such as the formulation of the general ledger, financial reporting, coordination of year-end tax and audit endeavors for clients, as well as aiding in the formulation of budgets and financial projections. She works with clients in a number of industries including food and beverage, healthcare, manufacturing and real estate.

PROACTIVE

Lora believes in fostering personal relationships with her clients and contacts. She serves as a key member of the Salt Lake City team, seamlessly blending leadership, effective communication, problem-solving prowess and exceptional organizational skills. Lora enjoys motivating and working alongside other members of the team. Both clients and colleagues respect her for her expertise and natural ability to cultivate a positive work environment while significantly contributing to the overall success of the office.

OUTSIDE OF THE OFFICE

Lora actively dedicates her time to volunteering with organizations that address critical issues related to teenagers, women and mission trips to third-world countries.
